- 9:15am – 10:15am Session: COHEAO's Thoughts on the 115th Congress and the New Administration
With the Perkins Loan Program set to expire on September 30 and the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act on the horizon, 2017 is an incredibly important year for COHEAO. Executive Director Harrison Wadsworth will explain what a new administration and a new Congress mean for student financial services on campus, particularly Perkins Loans.

Speaker: Harrison Wadsworth, COHEAO Executive Director

Moderator: Maria Livolsi, COHEAO President
- 10:15am – 10:30am Break
- 10:30am – 11:30am Session: The Telephone Consumer Protection Act—Challenges and Efforts for Reform
Passed in 1991, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act is in desperate need of an update. Unfortunately, the politics surrounding telemarketing calls has thus far precluded legislative action on reforms for calls between businesses and existing customers. As the need for reform becomes incredibly apparent and the lawsuits continue to mount, there are efforts to update the legislation as well as those to challenge the legality of the Federal Communications Commission's decisions in interpreting TCPA. Learn firsthand about the battle in the courts, the Commission, and the halls of Congress to provide relief from this outdated law.

Speaker: Mark Brennan, Hogan Lovells
Kate Larson, Consumer Bankers Association
Harold Kim, US Chamber of Commerce Institute for Legal Reform

Moderator: Bob Perrin, Williams and Fudge
